Application Process:
The Membership Committee is available to facilitate the membership application process and to introduce prospective members to the Club facilities. A membership application requires the signature of a member sponsor and a Board of Governors or Membership Committee Member. The membership must receive approval from the Board of Governors before activation.

A prospective member may choose to have their membership activated immediately and pay pro-rated dues and assessment for a portion of dues and assessment based on the days remaining in the month of their approval or activate their membership on the first day of the month following Board approval. Initiation fee payment will be required before a membership number is issued.

Family Members:
SPOUSES/SIGNIFICANT OTHER: A member's spouse or significant other and their accompanied guests may use all Club facilities. A spouse or significant other is defined as a person legally married or engaged to a member; this definition does not include a person divorced from a member. The privilege of a spouse/significant other to use Club facilities shall terminate upon the earlier of (a) the effective date of a divorce, for which the member will provide the Club written notice, or (b) the Club's receipt of written notice from the member requesting that the spouse's privileges be terminated from his/her account. Divorced spouses can apply for their own membership as put forth in the Club bylaws.
CHILDREN: As long as they are attending school and not over 25.

I acknowledge that I have read the accompanying Membership Information, Derrick's Creek Golf Policies, and the Clubhouse Policies of Edgewood Country Club and agree to be bound thereby.
